Form for Graduates who have lost their Student ID

Student:

Student No.:

Department:

As I have lost my student ID, I cannot return it for annulment when I receive my diploma. According to Article No.6 of the Regulations for Student ID Issuance and Instructions, when graduating from the University, the student should return his (her) student ID to the Office of Academic Affairs for annulment. Unfortunately I cannot do this. Any false or improper use of the student ID is not the responsibility of the University. I will bear any and all legal responsibility. This document is hereby certified.
